in the event of any future war, 25X1 the leaders of the USSR will know that it will be their last chance, and that they will not hesitate to use chemical, bacteriological, and radiological agents, in spite of, and with complete disregard for, any international treaties. every available means of 25X1 destroying the enemy would be used regardless of humanitarian considerations. If the USSR received a little spray of gas, it would retaliate with a rain of gas. It had enough to choke, and to overflow, the enemy. the Soviet Union would neglect the 25X1 production of consumers' goods, but it would prepare for a war with all possible means, including gases.

they were
manufacturing gases at the present

Lt. Col.
Dimitriy MYSOV, a chemical warfare officer from the MVD, lecturing on chemical warfare, at the Senior MGB Border Guard Officer's School, Moscow, said that the Americans were using bacteriological warfare in Korea. He bragged that everything the capitalist countries had,
Russia had, and in greater quantities.

25X1

it applied to chemical agents at least, since the lecture was concerned mainly with chemical warfare.
